

“At Ruan, you’re not just another employee. If you work hard, someone will notice. I started here as a pricing analyst and am now a pricing manager, a role that allows me to easily recognize the direct impact I have on the company’s success. Ruan has given me the opportunity to collaborate across a wide variety of departments and have significant direct contact with leadership. It’s difficult these days to find a job that you can so readily see the meaning in your work.”

– AJAY KALRA, PRICING MANAGER
