This notice provides you with information to consider before deciding to take no action or to start, continue or change your salary deferral rate.

- Have completed 30 days of service with the company.

You are eligible to participate in the plan and receive employer contributions if you:

- Have completed 1 year of service with the company.

If you are a World Food Prize Tour Guide hired or rehired on or after 7/1/2015 or an Intern, you have different eligibility and entry requirements. You are eligible to participate in the plan and make Elective Deferral contributions, as well as receive Employer Contributions, on the semiannual date on or after you meet the following requirements:

- Are at least age 21
- Have completed 1 year of service with the company in which you worked 1000 or more hours
- Have completed 1 year of service with the company.

Salary Deferral Contribution Plan Provision

You may elect to defer a percentage of your pay each pay period. Your current taxable income is reduced by the amount you contribute through pre-tax salary deferral. This lets you reduce your current federal and most state income taxes. This plan allows you to defer 80% of your pay.

- You may also elect to defer a percentage of your pay each pay period as Roth deferrals, which are after-tax contributions.

Automatic Contribution Arrangement

This retirement plan includes an automatic contribution arrangement that applies to new participants or re-hired participants as they enter the plan. If you are a new participant, you will be automatically enrolled in the retirement plan, meaning 6% of your pay will be deducted from paychecks and contributed to the retirement plan on your behalf unless you elect a different salary deferral percentage. If you are not a new participant, you will maintain your current salary deferral amount unless you elect a different salary deferral percentage.

The retirement plan also includes an automatic salary deferral increase provision. Salary deferral contributions for automatically enrolled participants will automatically be increased by 1% every 7/1 up to 80%.

If you do not wish to be automatically enrolled, you may elect not to defer or to defer another percentage. You can enter into an agreement to change your salary deferral contribution on any date. You will need to complete and sign the salary deferral agreement or complete an election online, if applicable, before the date on which it is effective. Once an agreement (affirmative or automatic) is in effect, salary deferrals will be payroll deducted from your future paychecks. You can terminate your agreement at any time.

If you affirmatively elect to make salary deferral contributions or if you are automatically enrolled and you do not provide direction as to how contributions made on your behalf should be directed, then the contributions will be directed to T. Rowe Price Retirement Trust F, sub advised by T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc..

You may obtain additional information regarding investment choices on our secure website at principal.com, or if applicable, see your Qualified Default Investment Alternative notice.

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations or the retirement plan may limit the annual amount of your salary deferral contributions. Please see below for the annual IRS salary deferral limits. If you meet a salary deferral contribution limit, you may continue to defer up to the catch-up contribution limit if you are eligible to defer catch-up contributions.

Salary Deferral Limits

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations or the retirement plan may limit the annual amount of your salary deferral contributions. If you want to contribute more to your account than would be provided automatically, there are limits on the maximum amount. The IRS and plan limits are described in the Plan's Summary Plan Description (SPD) or can be obtained from your employer.

Pay is defined under the plan as follows: Wages, Tips and Other Compensation Box on Form W-2.

Other Employer Contributions
